The monotony of these proceedings grew has thresome to Senator Stanford, who has thresome to Senator Stanford, who has thresome to Senator Stanford, who has present the threefore fit upon a plan which he has reason to hope will prove effective, and which may be briefly explained as follows: Each Republican Representative in the state has been exposited to prepare a list of the gratilemen whom he desires should be appointed to the federal offices in his district.

Mr. McKeuma, from his knowledge of affairs in the second district, will also prepare that list, while Senator Stanford, who lives in San Francisco, will make his own scheefons for the fifth district. After the different lists have been prepared, they will

AMERICAN INTERESTS SOUTH.

American interests are largely represented is the 180 miles of railway running through the republic, and as those interests are mainly Californian in character, it is deemed advisable that a pertinent from that state should be selected to represent this government there. It is not improbable that Mr. Misner may secure this mission. He will be strongly backed by the entire delegation for the place, and President Harrison, it is said, regards him favorably. Hepresentative Vandever has recommended Horner G. Jacobson, of Orange, California, to be superintendent of the new public haliding at Los Angeles. Mr. Jacobson was formerly chief clerk of the supervising archite it's office in this city. The duties of his new position are entirely familiar, and General Vandever regards his appointment as one of the best that could possibly be made. duties of his new position are entirely fam illar, and General Vandever regards his ap-politiment as one of the best that could pos-aliby be made.

[Special to TRE HERALD-Examiner Dispatch.]
Washington, March 27,—The subject of making removals for "offensive partianfour years, was brought up at the cabine four years, was brought up at the cannot meeting to day and informally discussed. No formal decision was made and probably none will be. The policy for the present will be to the each case stand upon its own merits, and be considered by itself as it comes up. It is not the intention to make removals for political activity only.

LOOK OVER IT, OF COURSE. LOOK OVER IT, OF COURSE.

If an official has been really offensive in a personal way to the chief of his office, that will constitute an offense by itself; but mere participation in caucuses and conventions and like political work, will not be considered as offensive. President Harrison is said to hold that office holding does not deprive a person of any of his rights as a citizen, and among these rights be gives a place to political activity. He will not endeavor to repress it so long as it does not interfere with an officer's efficiency among his own appointees, and he will not apply a different rule to the members of the other vented. This principle will apply only to hose officials who require confirmation by he Senate or who have filled terms. LET THEM ALONE.

Colonel Clarkson, the first assistant post-master-general, will not be interfered with in the removal of fourth class postmasters. He removed minety-six to-day, not includ-ing resignations. This is not a very rapid progress, and unless the rate is increased, it will take over a year to turn them all over to Republican lands. But Colonel Clarkson's movements in this direction proceed on the principle of accelerating velocity.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHRZ.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHEZ.

There were more removals Tuesday than there were Monday, and more Monday than there were Saturday. Five of the eleven division superintendents of the railway mail service were removed today. All of the new men have had experience in the railway mail service, four of them having been division superintendents prior to 1885. Of the remaining six, two are Republicans who were left undisturbed by the Cleve and administration, and two were appointed last September to the superintendency of new divisions created by Congress. The other two Democrats who are spared are Joseph E. Gwin, at Cincinnat, and Robert M. Thomas at St. Lonis. It is expected that they will go soon.

The Gunbout Petrel.

Washington, March 3:—Secretary Tracy has ordered the ninth payment to be made on account of the Petrel, a small gun boat now being constructed at Haltimore boat new being constructed at Hallimore. The total amount of payment would have been $24,700, made up of $18,000 on account of the hall and $0,700 on account of the machinery, but a reservation of 10 per cent, is held back until the vessel is accepted; and in addition penulties have been deducted for the delay in construction beyond the contract time, which, taken together, reduced the amount of the minth payment to $50,721.

the contract time, which, taken together, reduced the amount of the ninth payment to $50,223.

The contractors have applied for an extension of the contract time, which, if allowed will in effort whee not or reduce the penalties. Action upon the application is likely to be intending a day or two. The contractors have elegated in extension of their delay, a loss of time on account of the steel deliveries which was caused by the action of the government hisporiars. Secretary Tracy is considering the entire subject of penalties which have accuract, not only it the case of the Petrel. but upon nearly all of the vessels constructed or began under the last administration. He has been furnished with a statement showing the exact condition of each vessel and the probable time required to complete those unfinished. He has the action of Secretary Whitney in granting in extension of time to contractors as a precedent and should be disagree with his prodecessor as to the power or the afviability of adopting a similar course. At eightbeat he began writing for the newspapers, at first contributing to the lighter class of romances. In 1851 he finished achooling at a farmers' college, near Cincinnati, and then did local newspaper reporting for several Cincinnati papers. In 1853 he became manager of a department on the Gusmersial and the following year he sequired a small interest in that paper. When the Commercial consolidated with the Gazette, the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette immediately became recognized as the organ of the Republicans. Mr. Halstead has a fine presence, genial manner and immense energy.

Some Day, You Will Believe Me. Special to Tent Herald-Examiner Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, March 27 .- There is considerable speculation as to the English and lish mission to the west, and has asked several Illinois politicians to name a man several Illinois politicians to name a man from that state. No one has yet been named, however, who suits him. Some of Patrick Egan's friends have not altogether abandoued hope that he will be sent to Mexico, but it is not generally believed he will. Congressman Ryan, of Ransas, is strongly supported by the people of his section for the place, and his canvas rather overshadows that of ex-Governor Osborn of the same state who, some think, will get the appointment. The position of minister to Russia has been offered to Allein Thoradike Rice of the North American Resier, and accepted by him. This gives three important foreign appointments to New York with Reid to France and Grant to Austria, and seems to preclude the possibility that a New York man will get the English mission.
